

Human Rights and Sustainable Business in China: from Principles to Practice

Breakfast meeting in Stockholm June 13, 2013

Track II is a consultancy specialised in dialogue and partnerships for human rights and sustainable development, with a focus on international clients in China and on Chinese enterprises abroad. During this seminar, Managing Director Ms Malin Oud and Mr Liang Xiaohui, Chief Researcher at China National Textile and Apparel Council, will give an overview of Human Rights and Sustainable Business in the Chinese context, touching on the following topics:

- Human Rights and Corporate Social Responsibility
- China and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights
- Recent Chinese policy changes and business practices
- Risks and opportunities

*Liang Xiaohui,
Chief
Researcher
at China
National Textile and Apparel Council*

*Malin Oud,
Managing Director, Track II*

TRACK II

DIALOGUE AND PARTNERSHIPS

Where?

Business Sweden (previously the Swedish Trade Council), B4, World Trade Center, Klarabergsviadukten 70, Stockholm

When?

Thursday, June 13, 2013 08:00 – 10:00, breakfast will be served

Cost and registration

The breakfast meeting is free of charge. Kindly note that seats are limited. Please register here!

This breakfast meeting is being held within the SCTC series of Member presentations. If you are interested in a member presentation for your organisation, please e-mail info@sctc.se for further information!

Welcome!

欢迎!