

Nominated new candidates and alternates to Sweden-China Trade Council Board of Directors 2026/2027

Nominated candidates:

Anna Andrén, Head of SEB International

Anna Andrén, born in 1978, has more than 20 years' investment banking and financial markets experience. Anna started her career at Goldman Sachs in London, first in Debt Capital Markets and then in FICC Nordic Sales, covering Corporate and Institutional clients on FX and Fixed Income derivatives, including strategic advisory and execution of Investment Banking related transactions.

Since joining SEB in 2004, Anna has held several managerial roles including Head of Cross-Asset Sales, Head of Markets Americas, based in New York, Global Head of Foreign Exchange and currently Head of SEB International, responsible for SEB's activities in Asia, the Americas, Poland and Ukraine. Anna is a member of the Corporate and Investment Banking divisional management team as well as the Global Banking management team.

Additionally, Anna is the Chairman of the Board at JSC, SEB Corporate Bank, Ukraine, Member of the Advisory Board at the Women's Career Network and she was a Board Member of the Scandinavian Foreign Exchange Committee 2021-2025.

Anna holds a Master in Business Administration, Major in Finance from Stockholm School of Economics and a CEMS Master from ESADE, Barcelona.

Marcus Scoliège, Head of Investments, Business Region

Göteborg, BRG

Marcus Scoliège, born in 1969, has a background in investment promotion, international trade and relations, Marcus has developed strong skills in leadership, project management and communication. Originally from New Zealand and having lived and worked in six countries. speaking four languages, which has given Marcus a broad international experience and understanding of different cultures. Marcus has helped international companies to make contacts, find partners, sell products and services and establish themselves in new countries. Today, Marcus is Head of Investment Promotion at Business Region Gothenburg, working to attract more successful companies to the region. Marcus will bring strategic planning, innovative solutions and a strong focus on creating valuable international collaborations to SCTC:s Board of Directors. He is looking forward to continuing to strengthen the cooperation between BRG and SCTC to create a positive and sustainable future for Gothenburg and SCTC:s members.

Marcus Scoliège was first elected alternate board member in 2025.

Nominated alternate candidates:

David Almström, Executive Director, Tiandi Scandinavia

David Almstrom, born in 1968, is the Director of Product for Software Engineering at Northvolt and the executive director at Tiandi Scandinavia, focused on ICT and startups since 2009. With a background in technology and startups, he has a strong engagement in China and Asia. Previously, he held roles at Voi, Spotify, Telenor, and Mozilla. Mr Almstrom has been active in the mobile industry in Asia since the mid-90s and has held key positions at Ericsson, Nokia, and Trolltech. He holds an M.Sc. in telecommunications and enjoys writing and speaking engagements. He resides in Stockholm with his family.

David Almström was first elected alternate board member in 2021.

Ingela Mauritzon, Partner and Senior Consultant, Fabola

Ingela Mauritzon, born in 1980, is a Partner and Senior Consultant at Fabola, a consultancy specialised in regulatory compliance, clinical validation, and market entry strategies for MedTech. She is also currently a PhD candidate at Halmstad University, researching innovation and regulatory affairs in MedTech.

Ingela holds a Master's degree in Innovation and Entrepreneurship from Lund University and a Bachelor's degree in Service Management (Healthcare) from Lund University. She studied Chinese at Beijing Language and Culture University and at Lund University.

Ingela spent ten years living and working in Beijing. After attending BLCU university she served as a consular officer at the Embassy of Sweden, worked as a freelance journalist for Swedish National Radio, and managed the international department at Tiantan Puhua Hospital. These experiences gave her a deep understanding of cross-cultural business between Europe and China, particularly in the healthcare and MedTech sectors.

With her combination of academic research, entrepreneurial experience, and expertise in European and Chinese MedTech markets, Ingela brings a unique perspective on regulatory affairs, innovation, and healthcare industry collaboration between the Nordics and China.